

The move is on to SYNOVEX C!

Last year, thousands of cattlemen moved up to Synovex® C calf implants. And not just first-time implant users...in fact, 7 out of 10 were producers who switched from Ralgr® to Synovex C!

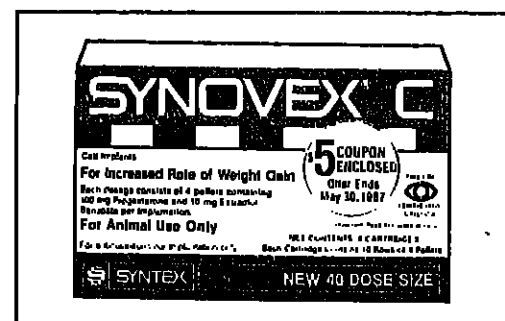

Why? Because Synovex C is the only growth implant specifically designed for calves — with better gains that last the entire season. In 19 independent trials, Synovex C implanted calves outgained Ralgr calves by an average of 6 lbs.*

Synovex C is made with naturally occurring compounds that are so safe, there's no withdrawal. And Synovex C implants are FDA approved for use in heifer calves that may be used for breeding later.

Right now, you can get an even better deal on the better calf implant. Get a $5 cash rebate on every specially marked box of Synovex C implants you purchase.

For better gains, added safety and more return on all your calves, make your move to a better implant. That's Synovex C.

BEING MISQUOTED A HAZARD OF OUR DAILY LIVES...

Elsewhere on this page we present a story, or maybe a saga, which might be called, "The Perils of Cybill." Every bit as fraught with tribulations as the old movies titled "The Perils of Pauline." As you all know Cybill Shepherd is the spokeswoman for the Beef Industry in their campaign to recapture their beef market working in tandem with James Garner. These attractive people are doing a good job for beef, and Cybill is, as well as the rest of us, over an article published in the "Family Circle" magazine that implies she is "anti-meat."

A leader of the cattle industry called us last Friday and told us a rebuttal was in the works and apparently some luncheon on Cybill's staff got themselves misquoted in this article. We observed that we figured the culprit was in hot water and he says, "I hope she fires the S.O.B."

Spokeswoman Cybill Shepherd Denies Anti-Meat Statement

Kansas City, Feb. 5 (KRF) — The beef industry's newest spokeswoman, Cybill Shepherd, has denied a statement in the latest edition of Family Circle in which she reportedly attributes her hearty to not eating red meat.

The author of "What's Your New Beauty Secret," received the quote from Shepherd's publicist, said John Francis, director of Consumer Information and Merchandising for the National Livestock and Meat Board. Shepherd sent a letter to the magazine stating the comments were released by her publicity office and "were not entirely correct," Francis said.

"I do avoid fatty foods, but I have retained red meat in my diet," she said in the letter. "Beef, for example is one of my favorite foods when it is trimmed of fat and cooked properly."

Shepherd said her views on fatty foods, should not be confused with her views on red meat. "By no stretch of the imagination are they the same thing."

Francis said the article appears in editions distributed in the central and western US and includes interviews with six female stars. The edition has reached subscribers and should be on newsstands soon, he said.

Pat Adrian, Chairperson of the Beef Industry Council and Bob Rehbock, Chairman of the Promotion Committee issued the following announcement:

We have learned that some regional editions of the March 3 Family Circle quote Cybill Shepherd as saying she is "trying to stay away from red meat."

Rest assured Cybill never said this, and is extremely upset. The writer of this article, "What's Your New Beauty Secret," received the quote sometime last year from someone in Cybill's publicity office, who didn't clear it. When told of the error, Cybill immediately wrote a letter of correction to the editor of Family Circle (copy below) and set a written apology to the Beef Industry Council to be shared with the entire industry (copy below). As you can see, her publicist's commitment to beef remains pressed. She stressed her interest in working with the industry to correct any misperceptions that this may have caused.

This edition of Family Circle has reached subscribers, but is not yet available for sale. The Beef Industry Council and Ketchum Advertising are working on a variety of options to exercise if this unfortunate situation becomes a news story with consumer media.

We also are working with Cybill and her office to make sure nothing like this happens again. We understand how easy it is for well known and exciting celebrities to be misquoted or misrepresented by reporters or even their own employees, but obviously we cannot tolerate even a simple mistake like this, no matter how innocent or inadvertent.

All of us in the industry want to set the record straight quickly. If you have any questions about this incident, please contact Tom McDermott or Craig Mitchell at the Beef Industry Council. All can be reached at (812)

New Livestock Shows, Auction Sales, Championship Rodeo, Entertainment, Something for Everyone Scheduled

The 55th renewal of the great Houston Stock Show & Rodeo, the show with something for everyone, is putting the finishing touches on preparations for the annual run scheduled from February 21 through March 8. President Dr. Joseph T. Ainsworth recently issued an invitation to everyone to attend the show and enjoy the entertainment and competition. Ainsworth said: "Let me extend to each of you my personal invitation to participate in the 1987 Houston Livestock Show, February 21-March 8, 1987."

"Everything that makes our Show 'Number One' with exhibitors from throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and Latin America can be found in our 1987 schedule, just as you expect."

"We're proud to host the International Brahman and International Brangus Shows and glad to welcome the Gelbvieh Cattle Show to the roster of Houston Livestock Show boosters and friends. We guarantee that all the elements that keep the Houston Livestock Show the premier showcase of the livestock industry are on tap in 1987."

"As always, the Houston Show is a passport when it comes to meeting the needs of the livestock industry. While our Show is known for breaking new ground in our show rings, we've also been in the forefront of hosting much-requested exhibitions, seminars and meetings, all events that you, our exhibitors have wanted."

In 1987, we're doing this again by presenting the International Stockmen's School. This event, being co-hosted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Agriservices, Inc. and Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, will offer the opportunity for you an many others to come in contact with world renowned animal scientists and keep abreast of the latest technology in animal agriculture, in an atmosphere charged with the special vitality only Houston can provide."

The judging schedule appears on P. 18C.

More than forty livestock judges will add their expertise to the professional competition at the Houston Livestock Show, the world's largest with more than 25,000 entries annually.

At the request of Show superintendents and exhibitors and due to economic reasons, the market animal shows will once again return to a one-judging system rather than the three-judging system used during the past three years.

New to the 1987 Show schedule will be the inclusion of the open Gelbvieh cattle show. Special cattle shows also sharing the action at this year's event include the Area 1 Hall of Excellence Churubus Show, American Hereford Association Official Regional Show, Southern Regional Cattle Show, International Brangus Show, International Charolais Show, National Italian Fullblood Chianina Futurity Show, Southern Classic Maine-Anjou Show, Southern National Red Poll Show and Champion of Champion Simmental Show.

The following open cattle shows will once again be featured: Angus, Blonde d'Aquitaine, Limousin, Polled Hereford, Santa Gertrudis, Simbrah and Zebu.

Of special interest to Brahman cattle breeders and buyers is the dedication of the International Brahman Show to Lattie Douglas, one of the world's foremost custom fitters of beef cattle with special interest in fitting and showing Brahman.

This year's open breeding poultry show will be a semi-annual national poultry show.

For the Quarter Horse shows, the following judges will add their expertise to the competition: E. F. "Bud" Alderson, Sharpville, Ind. — halter classes; C. W. "Bill" Englund, Cashin, Ark. — performance classes; Charles Rydberg, Las Cruces, N.M. and Jerry Lacy, Fulton, Miss. — cutting classes; and Randy Alderson, Sharpville, Ind. — youth classes.

Additional horse show judges include Carol Ecker, Granger, Ind. — Palomino; Donald Hulmer, Acampo, Calif. — Paint; Jim Baker, Phoenix, Ariz. — Arabian and Half Arabian; Darrell L. Bilko, Edmond, Okla. — Appaloosa; and Bob Bear, Pickett, Texas — Donkeys and Mules.

Cutting horse judges for the non-professional classes will be C. T. Bryant, Amelia, Ohio; Lox Graham, Wichita Falls, Texas and Lynn Strickland, Millsap, Texas. In the open class competition, scheduled judges are Lanny Ashley, Cores, Calif.; Bobby Ingorsoll, Pleasant Grove, Calif. and Don Munn, Brenham, Texas.

Cutting horse competition kicks off the Houston Horse Show Wednesday, Feb. 18 with the non-professional class contest.

The National Cutting Horse Association (NCHA) national finals start Thursday, Feb. 19 featuring only the top 16 open horses and top 16 non-professional riders in the world.

The finals competition will consist of four go-rounds in each division. The cumulative high score of all four go-rounds will determine both the non-pro and open division winners. Sponsored Milk cows, at 10.6 million, were 6% below January 1, 1986 and down 2% from two years ago.

Other class estimates on Jan. 1, 1987, and the changes from Jan. 1 last year and two years ago, respectively, are as follows:

Beef replacement heifers, 6.15 million, virtually unchanged and down 1%.

Milk replacement heifers, 4.33 million, down 9% from both years.

Other heifers, 7.55 million, down 7% and 6%.

Calves under 600 pounds, 23.1 million, down 6% and 13%.

All cattle and calves on feed for slaughter, 11.0 million, down 6% and 12%.

For information call: (202) 447-6880. The 1986 calf crop was estimated at 41.2 million, up slightly from 1985, but down 3% from 1984. The estimated calf crop is up 3% from the expected number published last July. Calves born during the first six months of the year were estimated at 71.8% of the annual total.

LOT A - FLYING L MARQUIS Selling Half Interest & Full Possession

Adj Wean Wt 609 lbs Adj Yearl Wt 1332 lbs Frame 6
 Weaning EPD + 33.2 lbs Milk + Growth EPD + 25.4 lbs
 Yearling EPD + 46.9 lbs

Flying L Marquis was high individual in our record smashing Solitaire group at OSU. Finishing with a 4.34 lb. ADG and a 3.68 lb. WDA. Only four other Herefords (including two Orion sons) had ever recorded a yearling weight that high. This two year old is long, correct and well balanced (in conformation and performance). His Bold Lad dam ranks two standard deviations above the breed on her EPDs across the board — weaning and yearling weights, height and milk!

* We are selling full possession and half interest in all semen sales in Lots A, 1 & 2. We retain the right to use each bull one time in natural service after February 1, 1988, for a six month interval of our selection.

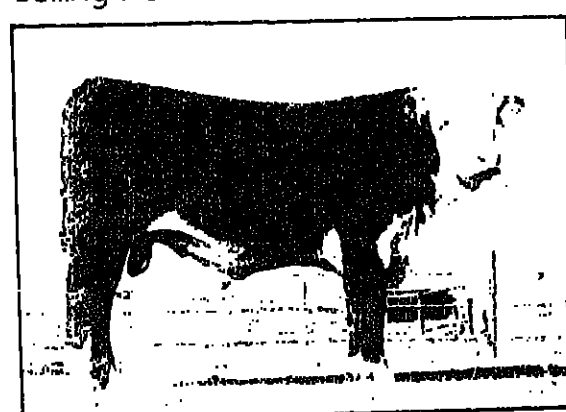

TWO MORE TOP SONS OF FL ORION SELLING!

Adj Wean Wt 652 lbs Adj Yr Wt 1221 lbs FS 6.5
 Weaning EPD + 38.2 lbs Milk + Growth EPD + 20.8 lbs

Few bulls can match this three-quarter brother to Jupiter. His maternal granddam is Solitaire's mother. In addition, his dam boasts a 349 day calving interval and ranks in the top 2% of the nation's cows for yearling weight and height and EPDs.

LOT 1 - FL JUPITER Selling Half Interest & Full Possession

Adj Wean Wt 737 lbs Adj Yearl Wt 1307 lbs Frame 7
 Weaning EPD + 41.5 lbs Milk + Growth EPD + 24.2 lbs

Look over this eye pleasing young Hereford with a new pedigree that's packed with the genetics of our biggest, highest performing cows as well as with proven top FL sires like Orion, War Lord, Bold Lad, Stanway, 46Z, Northern Plegan, Hercules and Royal Canadian. There's generation after generation of them!

The 13th Annual Healey Bros Sale

MONDAY, MARCH 2ND, 1987

Adj Wean Wt 716 lbs Adj Yearl Wt 1226 lbs Frame 7
 Weaning EPD + 32.2 lbs Milk + Growth EPD + 23.2 lbs

FL Santa Claus came Christmas Eve 1985. We knew this FL True Mark son was a future herd bull. He's a massive, beef type Hereford with good legs, good structure, and out of a top Peacemaker cow. She ranks seventh in our herd for frame and in the top 2% nationally on both weaning and yearling weight EPDs, and in the top 15% for milk.

Selling:
40 Bulls
20 Heifers

MONEY IN YOUR POCKET!

Did You Know:

* Not one of our 107 cows had a negative EPD for weaning weight, yearling weight or height in our entire '86 Herd Evaluation Report!

* The entire FL cow herd averages in the nation's top 2% of all EPDs for weaning weights and yearling weights

* The entire FL cow herd out averages the average of the nation's herd bulls (by almost double) in every EPD category

* Year after year, the average milk EPD of the FL cow herd continues to rank in the top 15% of all calving cows reported nationally

* There is no embryo transplant program at Flying L — every calf is raised on its natural dam

* The FL catalog always shows all the performance data on all the animals — why not?

* Flying L bulls aren't average in performance, and they never have been:

	Weaning EPD	Milk + Growth EPD
National Average	+8.4 lbs.	+8.0 lbs.
All TPR Hereford Bulls (with registered calves)	+27.9 lbs.	+20.2 lbs.
All 1987 FL Sale Bulls	+19.5 lbs.	+12.2 lbs.

The Flying L Advantage
 * Not one FL bull in this sale is as low in either EPD as the average of the Hereford bulls working in registered TPR Hereford herds!

* Our lowest FL bull on Weaning EPD is over twice the national average!

Blonde d'Aquitaine Associations Merge

Houston — The recent merger of the two national Blonde d'Aquitaine organizations into one is being accomplished by a nationally distributed news BULLETIN, Harry Watkins, President of the new organization announced. Watkins, who is a partner in J. Papalote Blondes of Uvalde, Texas, also reported that the new organization, which has taken the name "American Blonde d'Aquitaine Association," now has a single herd book. It is a combination of registration in the name of the "National Blonde d'Aquitaine Foundation" and the "American Association" with which it merged.

Buddy Smith, of S Agri Management Systems in Maxwell, Texas and a member of the Board of Directors for the American Association, pointed out that two Regional organizations handle most of the advertising and public relations and sponsor many of the cat shows and exhibits throughout the country. The Texas Blonde d'Aquitaine Foundation covers primarily southwestern states with a concentration of members in Texas. The Rocky Mountain Blonde Association covers the Rocky Mountain states.

It is expected that the BULLETIN will be published on a quarterly basis. Further information can be obtained from the American Blonde d'Aquitaine Association, 79 East 100th Street, Gunnison, Utah 84694 or from the Texas Blonde d'Aquitaine Foundation, P.O. Box 53515, Houston, Texas 77052.

Cybill is caught in a trap that most of us who are interviewed from time to time find our self in. MISQUOTED or either with malice aforethought or through the ignorance of the reporter interviewing us. What you tell 'em and what they write often are poles apart and on occasions when we have been called by certain reporters we always bring and offer a little prayer asking that they please get it straight. These days there may still be a few folks like 'ol politician who averred that he did not care what they said about him, as long as they spelled his name right! Mayhe!

Unfortunately for our profession there are some writers at large who start out with their minds already made up as to what the story is and in order to indulge their whims they put words into an interviewee's mouth and take quotes out of context.

While we suffered along with Cybill we had a random thought. Th' Congress is busy these days with what they smilingly refer to as income enhancement for th' Govmint to try and shrink th' Deficit. Now if some Congressmen will apply themselves they could pass a law makin' it a misdemeanor to misquote or print untruths and to speculate about important things. This could raise a few well needed bucks for th' Treasury.

While they are at it they could make this apply to public officials or public figures who plant false stories or rumors where there is no fact or truth involved. Also we can't see any reason th' politicians should not kick in a portion of th' fees, and honorariums they collect while they are on our payroll. Why should we pay our public servants and provide them a forum to collect more money on our time, unless we get a piece of th' pie for th' Treasury? Meanwhile, there ort to be a fine attached to any writer who writes a supposed news story and quotes unidentified sources. There are a lot of dreams that slip into th' news as quotations of sources who did not want to be identified. There ain't much you can do about gittin' mis-

Sheep and lambs on feed January 1, 1987 for the slaughter market in the 25 major feeding states totaled 1.50 million head. 1986 lamb crop of 7.35 million head decreased 1% from the 1985 lamb crop. Breeding ewes one year old and older on January 1, 1986 were down 6% from the previous year. The 1986 lambing rate was 108 per 100 ewes one year old and older, compared with 103 in 1985 and 99 in 1984. Goat numbers in Texas totaled 1.87 million on January 1, 1987, down 2% from a year earlier. Total value of $77.6 million was 14% above last year. Average value per head increased $5.30 to $46.40.

Commodity Insight

Week Ending February 5

The cattle market and the Dow Jones are leading all other futures markets higher. As a matter of fact, the cattle and the Dow are literally moving in unison. I've seen this phenomenon before but it never ceases to amaze me. Actually, there have been many markets that have rallied since the first of the year. Wheat, soybean oil, oats, lumber, all foreign currencies, silver, gold, platinum, crude oil, sugar, hogs and pork bellies have moved higher in price along with the cattle and the Dow. Traders that have been buying the breaks in those markets have fared quite well over the past four to six weeks.

I have mixed emotions regarding the cattle market. Since late summer, I have been forecasting cash and futures prices of $55 to $70. I felt quite confident that cattle prices would hit those levels. But I expected those levels to be achieved sometime after the first quarter of the new year.

As things turned out, the cattle market achieved my upside objectives in early February. This past week, some cash cattle markets traded as high as $65 and futures, for February delivery, traded over $64.50.

These price levels were achieved the day of the long awaited Cattle Inventory Report. The bulls claimed that this report would thrust cattle prices into the stratosphere. Traders were anticipating a very bullish report. They were disappointed.

The inventory report was and will be construed by traders as bearish. The early calls for cattle prices are lower with prices down anywhere from 50 cents to limit down. The cattle market should cool down a bit following this report.

The inventory report suggested that herd rebuilding is continuing and that herd liquidation is ending. That is the key to this cattle market. Therefore, the report is not really all that bearish, regardless of near term price direction or trader sentiment.

Over the near term, I wouldn't be surprised to see cattle prices set back anywhere from three to five dollars. Given the current market psychology, cattle prices could fall seven dollars.

The huge open interest in the futures market coupled with the heavy trading volume has set the stage for a variety of scenarios.

It's obvious that U.S. beef supplies will be reduced by 2% to 3% in 1987. And heifer and cow slaughter could decline 15% to 20% creating even tighter demand for ground and processed beef. That's the main bull argument for higher cattle prices.

On the other side of the coin however, rests this bearish argument. Due to lower feed costs pork production in 1987 should increase at least 8%. Poultry production should jump as much as 8% to 10%. It's very possible that by the end of 1987, these competing meats will decline in price by 18% to 20%.

How important a role do these competing meats play in the marketplace? In 1982 U.S. poultry consumption surpassed pork consumption. It is expected that poultry consumption will surpass beef consumption by 1990.

These changes in meat consumption patterns are due to several factors. First, the consumer believes in the link between beef and cholesterol. Secondly, consumers are very diet conscious and now prefer more of a variety of meats. Finally, lower prices of competing meats generally causes the housewife to turn her back on expensive beef.

I am not a bear towards the cattle market. But until the first quarter of 1987 is past, or a significant break in prices occurs, I will remain a cautious bull.

beginning of the year, 1 percent below last year and the lowest January 1 inventory since 1980.

According to figures released by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service, Texas still retained its number-one ranking in total number of cattle and calves with 13 percent of the U.S. inventory.

Total value of the state's cattle and calf inventory was $4.56 billion, unchanged from 1986. Value per head averaged $340, compared with $335 last year.

State statistician Dennis Findley reported that inventory figures for beef cows that have calved increased 2 percent from the previous year to 5.28 million head. Milk cows that have calved were up 1 percent to 325,000.

Beef replacement heifers, at 880,000 head, were unchanged from last year, while milk cow replacements dropped 29 percent to 100,000 head. Steers 500 pounds and over totaled 2.50 million head, up 4 percent from January 1, 1986. The total inventory of steers, heifers and bulls under 500 pounds decreased 5 percent to 2.90 million.

Some 4.95 million calves were born during 1986, up 4 percent from 1985. Winter pastures were good across the state, and weather conditions during the year were favorable for most calving operations, Findley explained.

The U.S. inventory of all cattle and calves totaled 102 million head on January 1, down 3 percent from last year and 7 percent from 1985. This continued the recent downward trend in cattle inventories started four years ago and was the lowest number since 1982.

Beef replacement heifers, at 5.15 million, were virtually unchanged from a year ago, while milk replacement heifers dropped 9 percent to 4.33 million head. Beef cows that have calved totaled 33.9 million head, up 1 percent and reversing the downward trend started four years ago. Milk cows that have calved decreased 6 percent to 10.5 million.

AT ALTA VERDE INDUSTRIES WE UNDERSTAND TEXAS CATTLE

We all know that if you're going to raise cattle in most parts of Texas you have to use a breed that can take the heat and walk quite a distance to water. But suddenly, we're hearing some people in the packing industry say that cattle able to do this don't fit their programs.

At Alta Verde, we take another viewpoint. To us, an animal is not unfit just because he has some ear, or hump, or Mexican influence, and we don't intend to dock anyone just because he raises cattle that can survive in hard country.

We have the facilities and know-how to help you take your cattle through the feedlot all the way to the packing plant, and since we carry out each phase of the operation ourselves, we can make you a good deal on the entire package.

So if someone's telling you that your cattle are below par, call and let us give you a second opinion. After all, people do make mistakes.

Panhandle Feedlot Movement 71,900
Amarillo, Feb. 6 — Slaughter steers 2,000-2,500 higher, heifers 200 higher. This week's warm weather has given the feedlots in the south plain area the chance to dry out and let cattle regain some of weight lost during snow and cold weather of mid-January, although some yards are still reporting muddy conditions. Feedlots continue to sell cattle 2-3 weeks ahead of marketing date, with most showlots being sold out by Thursday morning.

The average live weight of most cattle slaughtered at area packing plants last week was 1078 lbs. on 12,611 head and 28% heifers compared to 1086 lbs. on 123,466 head and 30% heifers the previous week and 80% heifers on 122,587 head and 30% heifers the corresponding week a year ago. Steers 61,800; good and mostly choice 2-3 70-85% choice, 1050-1150 lbs. 63.00-65.00, late 64.00-65.00. Mid good and choice 2-3 1050-1200 lbs. 61.50-63.50, late 63.00-63.50. Few good and mostly choice 2-3 1150 lb. calf and Holsteins 68.50. Few pens good and choice 2-3 1100-1150 lb. Holsteins 58.00-67.00. Heifers 80-100 lbs. mostly choice 2-3 80-102% lbs. 60.00-62.50, late 61.50-62.00. Few pens good and choice 2-3 80-102% lbs. heifers 58.50-67.50.

Red Angus Feature Breed At Oregon State University

Red Angus will move to a place of prominence in Oregon agriculture as a result of their selection recently by Oregon State University as one of two beef breeds to be established at their facilities in Corvallis. In a move to strengthen the teaching and research in beef production at their animal science unit, OSU will use Red Angus as one of only two purebred herds to help students understand genetics, animal selection and evaluation, reproduction techniques, as well as to provide practical experience in management.

According to Dr. Steve Davis, animal science department head, all beef breed associations were invited to submit proposals to help establish the herds because "the purebred industry builds the genetic base and provides germ plasma for beef producers in general and first-hand experience with a registered herd provides students with a 'pulse' of the industry." The proposal by Oregon Red Angus Association and Oregon Shorthorn Association were accepted by the University.

When the herds are at full strength, it is expected that each will have about 50 head of cattle. Bill Zollinger, Eastern beef specialist, who is assisting with the program, added that these purebred herds are seen as a way for the department to maintain industry contact and to hear "where the industry is."

Red Angus breeders who are cooperating with Oregon State University in setting up the herd are: Noles Red Angus, Beaverton, OR; Stan Kouba, Gaston, OR; Norstar Red Angus, Madras, OR; Lorenzen Angus, Myrtle Point, OR; North San Ranches, Pendleton, OR; Norman Red Angus, Stayton, OR; and McPeck Red Angus, Lodi, CA. They will be contributing females and semen in this donation program through the OSU Foundation.

Denver Red Angus Show Results

Cold weather and great cattle once again highlighted the Red Angus Open Show "On the Hill" at the National Western Stock Show in Denver, Colorado. The Open Show was held January 15 and was judged by Russ Danielson of North Dakota State University. There were 31 exhibitors from nine states and Canada showing 60 head of Red Angus and nine pens of 3 bulls. The bull pen was sorted by Dr. Hub Kropp of Oklahoma State University on January 14.

The Grand Champion Red Angus female was a Canadian entry, SSS Princess BST, exhibited by Triple S Red Angus of Calgary, Alberta. This March 16 yearling was also named the junior champion and was sired by Red SSS Tokom 614M and out of Red SSS Princess 637P. Black Beauty Cattle Company of Slough, B.C., and Leachman Brothers Cattle, Billings, MT, showed Leachman Red Girl 6080, a 15-month-old female.

Salers Pen Bull Show Competitive At National Western

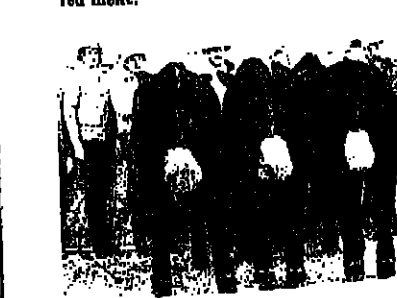

Crisp winter weather drove the crowd inside for the 1987 National Salers pen bull show at this year's National Western Stock Show. With standing room only in the Livestock Auction Arena, judge Rod Ogren, Marcus, Iowa, commented on the tremendous quality and functionality of the stout Salers pens on exhibit.

"Rugged, correct, and full of red meat," Ogren said of the pen of senior bull calves he chose as the champion pen of Salers bulls. Frank Whitman, Leoti, Kan., and Ed Winters, Red Lodge, Mont., showed the September 1986 sons of Prince.

Selected for the reserve champion lot was a set of senior calves that

Grand champion Salers pen of bulls at the 1987 National Western Stock Show and the National Salers Show was a pen of September 1986 sons of Prince shown by Frank Whitman, Leoti, Kan., and Ed Winters, Red Lodge, Mont. Rod Ogren, Marcus, Iowa, judged the Salers pens and said the champions were "rugged, correct, and full of red meat."

National Salers Sale Aves. $7,858 On 37% Lots

After a sale show that saw judge Jerry Fitzgerald, Harrison, Nebr., commend Salers breeders for consigning such powerful breed leaders to a national sale and an open show that found the National Western stadium stands filled, the stage was set for a tremendous National Salers Sale.

Selling to a standing-room-only crowd, 37% Salers lots walked through the auction ring to average $7,858 — a $4,721 increase over the 1986 sale average. Seventeen and one-quarter bulls averaged $8,730, and the distaff side averaged $7,124. These averages represented increases of $3,235 and $3,887, respectively, over the 1986 National Salers Sale.

High-selling bull was SRM Chance, a strapping January 1986 son of national champion Slammer, consigned by Beartooth Ranch, Columbus, Mont., and Shelton Ranch Co., Gallatin Gateway, Mont. Chance, the open show junior bull calf champion, was purchased by United Livestock Brokers, Inc., Fort Collins, Colo., at $25,000 for half interest.

BT C&H Nancy, a January 1986 daughter of Slammer, was snapped up by Colo Vista Ranch, Bastrop, Tex., at $25,000 to lead the female lineup. This fancy and functional miss was consigned by Beartooth Ranch, Columbus, Mont., and C and H Ranches, Roscoe, Mont.

The momentum and interest in the Salers breed continued to grow and was evidenced.

Houston Brahman Show Dedicated To LaRue Douglas

Houston - The 1987 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo's International Brahman Show will be dedicated to LaRue Douglas of Georgetown, Texas.

In making the announcement, American Brahman Breeders Association President Stan Williams said, "LaRue has been a permanent fixture in Brahman shows around the country. His numerous contributions to the breed more than justify him for this honor."

Douglas and his wife Peggy have owned and operated LaRue's Fitting Service for the past 16 years. LaRue has spent most of the past 60 years involved in showing cattle and has won close to 4,000 major championships.

Recognizing the need to train youngsters and owners in his chosen profession, LaRue started LaRue's school in 1972. The response became so great that two schools per year are held.

LaRue has not and made literally thousands of friends throughout the world. His competitive edge has made him the "Dean" of custom fitters. His support of the Brahman breed through showing, breeding and promoting has made him one of its most loyal friends. Douglas will be presented a plaque during the International Brahman Show's female judging on Wednesday morning, February 25, 1987.

U.S. Sugar Brahman Herd Dispersal Set April 3-4

The dispersal of U.S. Sugar Corporation's purebred Brahman herd on April 3-4 at the Florida State Fairgrounds, Tampa, will mark the end of an era in the history of the breed.

U.S. Sugar Corporation, Clewiston, is phasing out its purebred cattle operation in Florida, and reducing the size of its commercial cattle program. The history making purebred Brahman herd has been purchased privately by FCA president Arky Rogers, Lake City, and Rich Michalk of Big M Ranch and Cattle Company, Jacksonville, Texas. The herd will be sold intact at the two-day dispersal at Tampa.

"I expect it will be the most significant sale in the history of the breed," said Richard McRae, Mount Pleasant, Texas, who will manage the event.

U.S. Sugar Corporation's Sugarland Ranch Brahman herd has been a continuous trend setter for the breed. The herd produced the national grand champion and national reserve grand champion bulls at three consecutive national Brahman shows - the ninth, tenth, and eleventh. The wins came at back to back national shows in 1964, 1967, and 1969. The success of Sugarland Brahman in the showing during that period has never been equaled, McRae noted.

Over 800 head of Sugarland Brahman cattle will be sold at the dispersal. Some 105 head of bulls will be sold, including all of the Sugarland herd sires, herd sire prospects, and current show bulls.

The sale will also feature 650 lots of Sugarland females - cow/calf pairs, heavy springing heifers, bred heifers, and yearling heifers. McRae said nothing will be held back. "The cattle will not be picked over," he said.

Skinner Hardy of Bellflower, California, and Charles Rollins of Fort Worth, Texas, will serve as auctioneers. A formal viewing of the sale cattle

Breeder's Complete For Henry Clay Kountz Memorial Trophy

Houston — Over 400 Brahman exhibitors will be competing for the Henry Clay Kountz Memorial trophy at this year's International Brahman Show held here February 25-26.

The award recognizes the premier Brahman breeder at the show based on points accumulated with show cattle. Last year's winner, V8 Ranch, will try and retain the coveted bronze of the late Kountz's principal sire, "The Millionaire." The bronze was commissioned by Mrs. Mary Sue Kountz of Placedo, Texas and was sculptured by the famous Sonny Timme.

In presenting the bronze to the American Brahman Breeders Association at last year's annual meeting, Mrs. Kountz said, "It is my sincere wish that this trophy become a coveted award, not just for the excellent piece of art it is but because it will represent the very highest achievement possible in the Brahman industry."

The award will be presented at the International Sale on Thursday, February 26.

THE COW/CALF OPERATOR HAS A NEW SET OF RULES... IT'S CALLED...

"NO FRILLS"

That's right, it's a back-to-the-basics, no frills approach for the commercial cattle producer. This means taking land that is not profitable to farm or cannot be farmed and producing a feedlot-acceptable calf with a minimum of labor and management involvement.

Red Brangus were made for these new rules. The aggressive, ready-to-go Red Brangus bulls will cover lots of rough country with big numbers of cows in a cost-efficient and worry-free system. The mostly uniform red-colored Red Brangus-cross calves will have small birth weights, show rapid growth with heavy weaning weights and be capable of producing the yield grade 2 choice carcass.

USDA Predicts Lower U.S. Fed Cattle Slaughter In Jan.-Mar.

Washington, Feb. 9 (KRP) — USDA said today it expected the U.S. fed cattle slaughter to be lower than expected during Jan.-Mar. because of fewer cattle fed than expected at the beginning of this year. However, it said in its monthly world agricultural supply and demand estimates report, it expected a boost in fed cattle slaughter during the second half of this year because of the relatively large supply of feeder cattle outside feedlots and continued low feed prices. USDA said the estimated supply of feeder cattle outside feedlots was a little larger than expected. As a result, fed cattle slaughter during July-Dec. should be above levels previously expected, it said. It also said beef production probably would be lower than previously anticipated this quarter and might be down about 7% in 1987 from 1986, with the decline in non-fed output. USDA increased its broiler export forecast this month because of unfilled

Futures Talk

Week Ending Feb. 6

Most news that affects the futures markets is available to most everyone at about the same time. On the floor of the Exchanges are the machines of news services that provide news related to the futures markets. Most brokerage houses also subscribe to one or more of these private news services.

Government reports are made available to everyone at the same time. The government is very careful to try to protect the data that it collects for its reports so that no one gets advance information. Frequently, those who compile data are locked in a room the day of the report to avoid advance disclosure as the report is being assembled.

But in addition to the "hard fact" news, there is that brand of news known as "rumor." Rumor is very important news. It can have a greater effect, at times, on price movement than the actual facts. Rumor involves anticipation. The trader who knows the "facts" first has an edge over other traders.

Please remember...these are free markets where price evolves from open outcry. Price is relative, therefore, it is constantly changing. Price is determined not by the "supposed worth" of an item, but rather, price is determined by what a willing buyer agrees to pay and by what a willing seller agrees to sell. Rumor may or may not become fact. Rumor will cause price change.

That price change may or may not be in the direction of your interpretation of the fundamentals of supply and demand. The price change caused by rumor is frequently sudden and drastic. Sudden and drastic price change frequently begs for the trader to take action. It is not always possible for the trader to be aware of the rumor as it is becoming known.

Therefore, I strongly urge that two actions be taken by the trader before taking a position in the market. First, layout a complete trading plan. This involves an entry point, a place to get out of the market if you are right, and a place to get out if you are wrong. And second, put "open" or "good until cancelled" exit orders in the market at the same time as the entry. With this approach, a trader does not have to be concerned with sudden rumors. If the market moves to their price, they will generally get out. If you are in phase with the flow of the price, the markets will pay you a handsome dividend.

The trend and flow of March feeder cattle remains up. The "flow" is a short term directional indicator. When a downtrending market tries to bottom out, the flow will turn neutral first, and then at a later time, the "trend" may be broken. Price can only do three things: move up, move down, or stay in a neutral position. Once in a neutral position, it will take more technical factors to move the flow into either the up or down mode. The "trend" is a long-term directional indicator. In accordance with last week's article, the resistance at $68.15 was knocked out on February 2 with the close at $68.87. There is support around $65.60 but that is also in the middle of the gap that was left by the last cattle-on-feed report. That gap is between $66.05 and $64.85, and it will probably be filled before the contract expires.

The trend and flow of June live cattle (fats) remains up. There is support around $59.00 and resistance around $64.50. The gap for this market is between $59.70 and $58.90.

The trend of June hogs remains up, and the flow remains neutral. The flow will turn up if the market exceeds $48.25. In accordance with last week's article, the resistance around $48.00 is still in tact with the high on February 2 of $48.25 on February 3 of $48.12, and the high on February 4 of $48.80. If the market closes above $48.30, the next resistance should be found around $48.90. A close below $46.50 should turn the flow down, and support should be found around $44.80.

The trend of July corn remains down, and the flow remains neutral. In accordance with last week's article, the support around $1.64 continues to hold with the low on February 6 of $1.64. A close below $1.62 will change the flow to down. The resistance remains around $1.80.

The trend of May wheat remains up. In accordance with last week's article, the flow has changed from neutral to up with the close on February 4 of $2.74. The next resistance should be found between $2.78 - $2.81. A close above $2.81 could lead to a test of the contract high at $3.00. A close below $2.68 would change the flow back to neutral. The major support is around $2.58.

The trend of March soybeans remains sideways. The boundaries of the sideways pattern are $5.11 and $4.82. There is resistance around $5.02 and support around $4.89.

The flow and trend of June Treasury Bills remains down. The resistance is around $8.10. Treasury Bill futures are traded with numbers that are the reciprocal of interest rates. As T-Bill futures move lower, interest rates are becoming higher. In case you haven't noticed, T-Bill rates have been slowly rising since October from a low of 4.90% to a present yield around 6.00%.

Valley Simbrah, Bos Indicus Assn. Merger Plans Outlined

On Oct. 4, 1986, the Board of The Rio Grande Valley Simbrah Association voted to merge with the South Texas Bos Indicus and F-1 Association. The newly formed Association is called the Rio Grande Valley Simbrah and Bos Indicus Association. The merger will better serve the members of the Association, most who belonged to both anyway, and the youth of the community to which we are dedicated.

There will be a fifteen Member Board of Directors who will serve the Association. They are: Carlos X. Guerra, Billie Mack Simpson, Charmaine Wentz, Rene Vela, Mike Riscia, James Russell, Howard Girault, Dr. Lauro Russell, Robert Kotzur, Balde Garcia, Ed Martinez, Sonny Martinez, Johnny Goad, Lucas Hinojosa, and Billy Wayne Simpson. The new officers were also elected at this time they are: Carlos X. Guerra, President; Billie Mack Simpson, Vice-President; Charmaine Wentz, Secretary; Rene Vela, Treasurer.

The new Association already has quite a lot of things planned. At Fiesta Hidalgo this year, held the first weekend in March, the Association will award $800.00 worth of premium money for showmanship. $200.00 will be awarded to the winner of the steer division, heifer division, and bull division.

The Rio Grande Valley Livestock Show is scheduled for March 18-22, 1987. The Rio Grande Valley Simbrah and Bos Indicus Association will be sponsoring the second annual All-Percentage Junior and Open Simbrah Show. The Junior Show will consist of both heifer and bull classes of all recognized percentages by the ASA. There will be ribbons and money awarded for the first four places of each class. First place will be awarded $80.00, second $50.00, third $40.00, and fourth $20.00. There will also be trophies for the Champion and Reserve Champion of each group. Trophies will be awarded for all Champions in the Open Show. Last year was the first year that Simbrah were shown at the Valley Show and it was the second largest breed represented.

The Rio Grande Valley Simbrah and Bos Indicus Association is also planning to hold a production sale Friday evening, March 20, 1987. This sale will offer both Simbrah and Bos Indicus cattle. Many of the Junior show projects will be offered. There will be 150 lots of both heifer and pen cattle. A select group of show steer prospects that will be eligible for the Spring of 1988 Show will also be sold in this sale. Carlos X. Guerra is the Sale Chairman and he vows that the cattle offered will only be from the top herds.

The Association will award two $1,000.00 scholarships this year to Juniors and Seniors who have shown either a Simbrah or a Bos Indicus at the Rio Grande Valley Livestock Show in 1987. The M. E. "Bud" Wentz award will be awarded again this year to the most outstanding boy or girl exhibiting an animal in the Junior Simbrah Class. The scholarship is to LaRue's School of Custom Fitting and is awarded by LaRue Douglas and the Rio Grande Valley Simbrah and Bos Indicus Association.

A steer sale has tentatively been scheduled for April or May. The sale will offer Fall of 1986 calves that will be good projects for the Spring of 1988. For more information on any or all of these projects, please call: Carlos X. Guerra at (512) 383-2802, Billie Mack Simpson at (512) 748-2089, or Billie Mack Simpson at (512) 860-4444.

As we pulled away from the remote parking lot in a pre-dawn airport departure on the van, the driver spotted a car with its lights still on. Out loud, she muttered, "I wonder if those are the kind of lights that go off automatically?"

Some wag from the back answered, "Yes, they go off automatically ... eventually."

"It won't take a minute," she said. "I'll check and see if I can turn them off because she returned quickly but the lights kept burning. As we passed behind the same vehicle on the way out, I saw why she had stopped short. It had a bumper sticker that read, 'If you value your life like I value this car, don't mess with it.'"

Striking up a conversation with the driver, I asked if she had to put up with a lot of strange happenings in her business. "You wouldn't believe it," she told me. "I've seen it all."

"The most maddening thing is the people who can't remember where they park. We give them a number of the exact spot but they lose it. Then they say, 'Just drive around and I'll spot it.' We have over a thousand cars on this lot. I try to help by asking what kind of car. One lady said, 'It's a four door.' Another said, 'I don't remember what kind but I do know the license plate has a 2 in it.'"

"A guy convinced us that his car was stolen from the lot, called the police, filed all the forms then called us. We gave him a key to the lot and he drove his wife's car to the airport. He came back the next day to get his wife's car but had lost her keys and his original parking ticket. We guessed at the parking fee, let him use the phone to call a tow truck and said good riddance. His wife called about a half hour later to say that she had her keys and was sending him back. He had found home the wrong car."

"When the tow truck came back with the car, the space that it was parked in was occupied so we put it on the opposite side of the lot and kept an eye on it so we could explain to the owner what happened. We did but he wouldn't believe us, said he didn't know what kind of game we were playing but he never made mistakes and his car was exactly where he left it. Then he confidently put the car in reverse and backed over his luggage."

"Telling all this in good humor, I asked for her philosophy of life. 'Laugh every chance you get,' she said. 'If I were a rich person, I'd have myself a nervous breakdown.'"

Panhandle, W. Okla., N. Mexico Feeders
Amarillo, Feb. 8 (F-S) — Texas Panhandle, Western Oklahoma and New Mexico weekly feeder cattle summary. Feeder steers 1.00-2.00 higher, calves full steady. This is the 5th consecutive week of very liberal volume in the area and the movement has averaged 62,000 head during that time. Demand good. Cattle Inventory Bullish, Some Surprises Noted

Kansas City, Feb. 4 (KRF) — Today's USDA cattle inventory report was considered bullish for the cattle industry, and cash cattle prices are expected to remain firm, despite the fact actual figures in some categories were above trade estimates, analysts told Knight-Ridder Financial News.

The report still indicates a decline in the total number of cattle and calves from a year-ago level, the analysts said, which will offset any initial negative psychology.

All cattle and calves as of Jan. 1 were reported at 102.0 million head, or 97% of a year ago, according to USDA. The pre-release average estimate was 96.1% in a range of 94.0 to 96.9%.

The 1986 calf crop was reported to be 100% of a year ago, at 41.2 million head. Pre-release average estimates pegged the crop at 39.8 million head, or 96.9% of a year ago.

Cash prices for choice steers are expected to remain at $64.50 to $65.00 per cwt, basis the plains states through the remainder of the week, the sources said. USDA reported $65.00 paid on steers in the Texas panhandle/Western Oklahoma region Feb. 4.

Most cattle feeders in the Midwest and plains states remain current in their marketings, which will continue to support cash prices near-term, said Joe Kropf, analyst with the LBAS consulting group. Good boxed beef movement this week has also been supportive, and, combined with current marketings, will override any initial

Brangus Convention To Praise Past, Challenge Future

"Praising the Past and Challenging the Future" is the theme that will highlight the 1987 Annual International Brangus Breeders Association (IBBA) Annual Convention and International Brangus Show on February 24-26, 1987 in Houston, TX. Convention activities are at the hotel headquarters, Marriott Hotel at the Astrodome, and the prestigious International Brangus Show is on Thursday, February 26 during the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo in the Astrodome.

As the Brangus breed moves forward and explores new directions, the IBBA will reflect the breed's beginning and recognize the founders. The IBBA will honor the 34 men who met in July of 1949 to form the Brangus Association.

This year's convention will also offer a challenge to attendees as a group of knowledgeable panelists will discuss the breed's future and that of the beef cattle industry. Ralph Hood, humorist and motivational speaker, will inspire and encourage us to live a more productive life. The IBBA membership will hold their annual meeting and elect new leaders. The IBBA standing committees will each address the most important factors of the Brangus breed and give direction and insight to Brangus breeders.

Registration will begin on Monday evening, February 23 from 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. and continue through the 26th. At 2:00 p.m. on Monday, Harris Farms, Columbus, TX will host a Brangus Production Sale at their ranch in Columbus.

IBBA committee meetings will get underway on Tuesday, February 24 at 8:00 a.m. and continue through Wednesday morning. Tuesday evening, Owl Creek Ranch and Plum Creek Ranch will unite to host a sale at 6:00 p.m. in the Marriott Hotel.

At 11:00 a.m., Wednesday the 25th, the IBBA membership will hold their annual meeting and election of officers. Beginning at 1:00 p.m., an industry panel will be staged with IBBA Executive Vice-President Jerry Morrow serving as moderator. Panel members include: Dr. Duell Allen, Manhattan, KS; Shirley Meyer, Watford City, ND; Jerry Peterson, Potwin, KS; and Mick Colvin, West Salem, OH. Following the panel, Larry Benayshok, Associate Professor, University of Georgia, Athens will present a talk on utilizing the sire summary. Featured speaker, Ralph Hood, will be the final speaker on Wednesday afternoon.

Highlighting the convention activities will be the "Praising the Past" cocktail reception in which the founders of the breed will be recognized and the 1988 Brangus Breeder of the Year will be announced. The reception will be followed by the Miss International Brangus Sale sponsored by the Bluebonnet Brangus Breeders Association.

The best Brangus cattle in the country will be paraded before Judge Dr. Bob Kropp, Stillwater, OK at the International Brangus Show. The most prestigious show of its kind for Brangus will be held on Thursday morning at 8:30 a.m. at the Astrodome. Concluding the annual convention will be an open board meeting on Thursday afternoon the 26th at 3:00 p.m. All activities will be held at the Marriott at the Astrodome unless indicated otherwise.

Strongy Brangus Show At Denver

The Brangus bulls on exhibit at the 1987 National Western Stock Show in Denver, CO were nothing short of impressive. Even the mass of show that descended on the city during the event couldn't begin to dampen the spirit, excitement and interest in Brangus cattle.

Never before had a better set of Brangus bulls been paraded before the judges in the pen show in "the yards" at the stock show. This year's judges, Mike Lettunich, Payette, ID and Gene Raymond, Garnett, KS had their work cut out for them as they selected this year's champions.

Windy Acres Brangus, Harrison, NE and Brenham, TX stepped their way past all others to nab grand champion pen of bulls recognition. Their entries, all sired by Extra of Brinks, were calving in February and March of 1986.

Topping the Brangus Pen Bull Show and collecting grand champion honors at the National Western Stock Show in Denver, CO was Windy Acres Brangus, Harrison, NE and Brenham, TX. This marks the second consecutive year for Windy Acres to take home the champion banner.

Reserve grand champion banners went to Granada Brangus, Wheelock, TX with their October 1986 set of bulls, all sired by Lovana Wildcard.

Topping the remaining class titles were: junior calves, Flying M Cattle

National Grain Market Review

Washington, Feb. 8 (USDA) — Soybean market declined sharply on the futures market during the week ended February 5. Domestic and export demand for beans and meal gave some support but a weak vegetable oil market and good growing conditions for the new crop in South America weakened soybean markets.

Wheat traded mixed with export markets mostly stronger giving support to hard red winter wheat to spring wheat and to Portland soft white wheat for export. A good flour mill demand added support. Lack of buying activity depressed soft red winter wheat at midwest interior market.

Wheat: Wheat traded mostly higher under support of expanded export trade and good flour mill buying to replace good grind level. Kansas City no. 1 hard red winter ordinary protein wheat rose 3/4 cents at 2.73 1/4, down 1/4 cents from 1986 and 87 1/4 cents per bushel below 1985. St. Louis no. 2 soft red winter wheat rose one to five cents lower at 3.10-3.15, fell 30-33 cents from 1986 and dropped 67-62 per bushel from 1985. Minneapolis no. 1 dark northern spring 14% protein wheat advanced 10 1/2 cents at 3.20 1/4, down 88 1/4 from last year and 78 cents per bushel below 1985. Portland no. 1 soft white wheat advanced 5 to 7 cents at 3.01-3.07, down 64-67 cents from last season and 76-80 cents below 1985.

Corn: Yellow corn traded mixed with advanced pressure from expanded generic certificate offerings and moderating weather which reduced animal feed requirements. Support came from steady industrial use and expanded export trade. Prices ranged 3 cents lower to 1/4 cent per bushel higher. Omaha no. 2 yellow corn traded unchanged at 1.44 but this is down 87-88 cents from 1986 and 1.10 1/2-1.20 per bushel below the 1985 price. White corn trade continue dull at a steady price level.

Oats and barley: Oats markets moved unchanged to up 6 cents in extremely tight trade. Barley traded 3 to 10 cents per bushel higher due to sharply expanded trade to Saudi Arabia.

Sorghum: Yellow grain sorghum moved mixed, steady to 5 cents lower at Kansas high plains markets and up 2 cents per hundred pounds at Kansas City. Light offerings furnished the

Cattle Inventory Bullish, Some Surprises Noted

Reports from the cattle inventory report, he said. However, cash cattle prices may have topped, Kropf said. Over the next four weeks, cash cattle prices should stabilize within a range of $63.50 to $65.00, he said. Feeder cattle prices should see some support from the report, said Mike Sands, Western Livestock Marketing Information Project leader. USDA reported steers weighing 500 pounds and over at 15.2 million head on Jan. 1, up 6% of a year ago. The lighter numbers could push prices near $75.00 by mid-March on feeder steers weighing 600-750 pounds, Sands said. USDA reported feeder steers weighing 650-800 pounds at $85.00 to $70.20 at the Oklahoma City feeder cattle auction. The category of "other heifers" in the report should be bullish to cash prices as well as the number of steers 200 pounds and over, said J.H.A.S. "Both indicate fewer cattle available to go on feed, in the long run, he said. USDA put "other heifers" at 7.5 million head, or 88% of a year ago. Beef heifers kept for replacement were reported at 100% of a year ago. This shows most cattlemen are at least retaining as many heifers as a year ago and may be rebuilding herds, the analysts said. Some analysts did not anticipate the number of calves beef cows in the report at 101% of a year ago, said Sands, leader of the Western Livestock Marketing Information Project. Many talk an increase in the beef cow slaughter early in 1988 and drought in the southeast, and Pacific northwest kept beef cow numbers low, he said. However, pro-release estimates did not take into account excellent forage conditions in 1986 in most of the U.S., Sands said. Forage conditions and good calving weather may have led to the increase in numbers, he said.

Farm Credit Holders Question New Accounting Practices

BY KATARINA TOLL
Washington, (KRF) — Holders of stock in farm credit system banks are expected to tell the Farm Credit Administration Board this month they are far from convinced new accounting practices will protect their stocks. The use of so-called "regulatory accounting practices" aimed at helping banks out of their financial problems. Although the FCA has said new practices, called RAP, stock improvement is expected to be the main focus at hearings FCA will hold in Kan-

Y.O. Ranch Sets Date For Team Roping & Roping Steer Sale

Mountain Home, TX — The Y.O. Ranch will be having a Team Roping & Roping Steer Sale on Saturday, March 28th and Sunday, March 29th, 1987 at the ranch in Mountain Home, Texas. The two day event will be open to all "C" ropers. There will be food, drinks and lodging available at the ranch. Fresh Longhorn steers will be featured in the roping and will be sold on Sunday. Four Longhorn steers will be awarded to the average winners. For more information contact Walter Schreiner or Jim Murff at the Y.O. Ranch (512) 640-3222. The revisions had little impact on the interests of borrowers, said Mary Kay Thatcher, an American Farm Bureau Federation official. She said the bureau would support RAP as long as FCA maintained its disclosure requirements. However, she noted those requirements put the banks in a dilemma: if they do not adopt RAP, their stocks might be impaired, but if they do they must acknowledge their financial difficulties to stockholders, which might cause a capital flight.

over 20 years rather than report them annually.

Congress and FCA have said the main purpose of RAP is to give system banks time to sort out their financial problems. The system, which is composed of 37 lending institutions grouped into 12 districts, reported $2.7 billion in losses for 1985 and $1.53 billion for the first three quarters of 1986.

Alan Tank, assistant vice president of the National Corn Growers Association, said the question for stockholders, who also are the borrowers from the system, was the stability of the system and the cost of credit under RAP. He said these worries remained strong because the system was expected to need financial assistance soon.

Extension Service Lab Does Soil, Water, Forage Tests

College Station — Helping farmers and ranches increase the efficiency of their operations is a major goal of the Soil, Water and Forage Testing Laboratory operated by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University. The Extension Service also operates a Soil Testing Lab at Lubbock. Dr. Dale Pennington directs the Extension Soil and Water Testing Lab at College Station while Don Dorsett oversees forage testing. Dr. Michael Hickey operates the Extension Soil Testing Lab at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. Basic soil fertility tests, including pH (acidity level), nitrate nitrogen, potassium, phosphorus, salinity, hazard, calcium and magnesium are available at both locations. A check for organic matter content can be requested along with a test for iron, zinc and manganese. Information sheets on free and sampling instructions are available at any county Extension office. Soil analysis reports will include the levels of available nutrients and suggested fertilization rates for crops listed on the information sheet accompanying the sample. Another test dealing with nutrients is the mineral analysis of plants. Plant tissue can be analyzed for as many as nine elements to determine if plants are adequate or deficient in each nutrient. The lab also tests water for livestock and irrigation use. Irrigation water tests include electrical conductivity, total salt, calcium, magnesium, potassium, sodium, carbonate, bicarbonate, sulfate, chloride and pH (acidity level). The water analysis for livestock use includes total salt. Specific instructions for submitting water samples plus information sheets are available at any county Extension office. Forage tests include protein, fiber (CONT. ON 12C) and manganese.

Charolais Pen Bull Results At Denver

Denver — A large crowd braved blizzard-like conditions to watch the 1987 National Western Charolais Pen and Carload Show held Jan. 15 at the Denver Livestock Center. Entries came from five western states and were viewed by the judges, potential buyers and spectators. Jerry Taylor of Alvarado, Texas, Howard Hillman of Canova, S.D., and Dr. David Ames of Colorado State University made the official placings and comments on the bull calves that were all born after Jan. 1, 1986.

Shoeneman's Charolais of Roggen, Colo., won their first Pen Show Championship with three grandsons of Impressive G860. A new exhibitor in the Charolais Pen Show, Schurr Brothers of Farnam, Neb., emerged with the Reserve Champion Pen Show banner. In the Carload shows, spectators had a chance to see true consistency and uniformity in breeding programs. A carload consists of 10 bulls from one ranch. Two breeders that have made this competition keen over the past few years were back in 1987 with superior carloads. Klingensmith's LK Ranch of Meeker, Colo., had the Grand Champion group. DeBruycker Charolais of Dutton, Mont., captured the Reserve Champion carload banner.

AVOID CHANGING WELL LEATHERS FOR MANY YEARS
Perma-cups are molded urethane, more wear resistant than nylon. Perma-cups will outlast leathers 10 to 1. Their tapered design allows only 1/8" wearing, instead of 5/8" of a leather. Much less friction for easier pumping extends cylinder life greatly. Perma-cups must be used in a good or new cylinder, as they do not swell. Install Urethane Perma-cups, Urethane Check-balls, and Urethane Pump Rod-guides, and don't pull that well for many years. Thousands are in wells that have not been relubed in 9 years! All are available in standard cylinder and pipe sizes. Write or call for our catalog. We ship same day order is received. Serving Farm and Ranch Since 1950.
